

American Society of Agricultural and Biological Engineers
SUMMER CAMP at AIM

2023 Annual International Meeting (AIM) – July 10-12 – Omaha, Nebraska USA

BACKGROUND: At AIM 2023, the society encourages you to consider bringing your family. Along with childcare on site at CHI Convention Center, ASABE is also offering a 3-day summer camp for the children of AIM attendees. This opportunity would allow them to experience a 3-day camp while the parent participates in AIM events.

CAMP TITLE: Wild Adventures

CAMP DESCRIPTION: Discover new skills and explore the wild side of Iowa at this 3-day hands-on outdoor camp. Children will grow their outdoor skills through experiences like archery, canoeing, shelter building challenges, and more.

WHO: Kids aged 8 to 12 of ASABE Omaha AIM attendees. (Minimum age as of January 1, 2023)

WHEN: July 10 – 12, 2023

Departing at 8:00am from CHI convention center and returning at 3:30/3:45pm each day.

CAMP INFORMATION:

Pottawattamie Conservation at Arrowhead Park
Address: 29357 310th ST
Neola, IA 51559

ORGANIZATION WEBSITE: pottconservation.com

NUMBER OF ATTENDEES per day: Minimum = 6                      Maximum = 12

TRANSPORTATION: ASABE will provide transportation for travel from CHI to Arrowhead Park with a chaperone on board to assure children security and handle logistics.

CAMP COST: $200 for 3 days

OTHER DETAILS:

1. To register: First on the ASABE website to cover all finances for transportation, camp fee, & food. You will then get a link for the Pottawattamie Camp website to agree to camp terms. A liability waiver will need to be signed. It will be included in the online camp registration
2. Box lunches would be provided. Dietary requirements would be part of on-line registration process
3. Pottawattamie Conservation will provide one morning snack and one afternoon snack.
4. Deadline for signup is May 1, 2023
5. Cancellation Terms: 100% refund by Jun 1, 2023; 50% by July 1, 2023; 0% after July 1, 2023

All attempts will be made to deliver the camp as registered for. Participation will be on a first to register basis. ASABE reserves the right to cancel camp for low attendance or unforeseen issues. Refunds will be made per the cancellation terms if the camp is canceled.